PUBLIC NOTICE - Community Development Block Grant Program for Indian Tribes (ICDBG) Citizen Participation and Comment Process

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has published a Notice of Funding Opportunity for the Community Development Block Grant Program for Indian Tribes (ICDBG). The purpose of the program is the development of viable Indian and Alaska Native communities. Cherokee Nation, in partnership with the Housing Authority of Cherokee Nation, proposes to utilize funding from the ICDBG grant program to implement the Cherry Tree Grow Project for a community building. This grant will revitalize the community, promote self-sufficiency, and improve quality of life. To comment, or for further accommodations for people with disabilities, please contact Savannah Smith, Executive Director of Community and Cultural Outreach, at 918-316-6470 or savannah-smith@cherokee.org on or before December 4, 2026 at 5:00PM CST. Any public comments will be accepted over the telephone, in person at the WW Keeler Tribal Complex (17675 South Muskogee, Tahlequah, OK 74464), or by email.
